

Connie Fisher Plough

April 12, 1947 - Aug. 4, 2013

ANDERSON — Connie Fisher Plough, 66, Anderson, passed away Aug. 4, 2013, at St. Vincent Anderson Regional Hospital after a brief battle with cancer and complications from Multiple Sclerosis.

She was born April 12, 1947, to Wilburn and Betty (Thompson) Fisher in Marion, but lived all her life in Anderson. She retired from Anderson Community Schools in June of 2009, after 28 years of teaching. She was one of those teachers who loved her time in the classroom and never thought of it as just a job.

Connie was a member of Lindberg Road Church of Christ. Her family meant the world to her, and her favorite thing to do was playing with her great-grandsons.

Connie is survived by her mother, Betty J. Fisher; daughter, Misty M. Plough; son, Jon P. Plough; her daughters in her heart, Victoria (Blades) Meyer and Elizabeth (Redd) Huff; granddaughters, Kelsey Ann (Rauby) Lawyer and Taylor Jo (Kyle O'Bryant) Plough; her grandchildren in her heart, Charlotte Huff, Candra Huff, Heidi Emmerling and Austin Smith; great-grandsons, Dawson Lee Lawyer, Collin Patrick Lawyer and Kolton Michael O'Bryant; brother, Jeffrey Kent (Ann) Fisher; nephews, Douglas and James Fisher; great-nieces, Kassi, Kaylee, Lexi and Maddie Fisher and Shaina Jenkins; best friends, Leigh Edwards and Sandy Anderson, and her special friend and neighbor, Brad Gustin.

She was preceded in death by her father, Wilburn C. Fisher; firstborn son, Gregory Allen Plough; and her significant other of 23 years, Larry Blades.

Per Connie's request, no funeral services will be held.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Salvation Army, 1615 Meridian St., Anderson, IN 46016.

The family wishes, especially, to thank the doctors and nurses on 5 South who took such wonderful care of Connie and her family.
